SIoux LOOKOUT DISTRICT CHIEFS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING NORTHERN NISHNAWBE EDUCATION COUNCIL

RESOLUTION # 09 / 10-2006

RESOLUTION TO EXPLORE AN URBAN RESERVE IN SIOUX LOOKOUT

WHEREAS

the Sioux Lookout District First Nations have established many of their service organizations in Sioux Lookout; and the population of the Municipality of Sioux Lookout is made up of at least fifty percent (50%) of First Nation members, most of whom come from the Sioux Lookout District First Nations; and the Chiefs believe that the establishment of an urban reserve will benefit the members of these First Nations and their organizations located in Sioux Lookout;

WHEREAS

WHEREAS

the Chiefs support the concept of an urban reserve being established within or adjoining the Municipality of Sioux Lookout;

BE IT RESOLVED

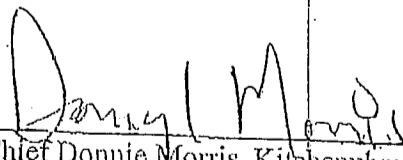

that a committee made up of First Nation Council representatives and Independent First Nations [Lac Seul & Mishkeegogamang] be established to investigate our urban reserve concept and include the Municipality of Sioux Lookout in this regard; and that the committee report back to the Sioux Lookout District Chiefs in assembly on a regular basis over the course of these discussions and development.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED

Dated this 26th day of October 2006 at Sioux Lookout, traditional territory of Lac Seul First Nation.

Moved by:

Chief Donnie Morris, Kitchenuhmaykoosib Inninuwug

Seconded by:

Chief Clifford Bull, Lac Seul First Nation

Attn: Chief Donny Morris, Kitchenuhmaykoosib Inninuwug
Chief Clifford Bull, Lac Seul First Nation

Dear Chiefs Morris and Bull,

On behalf of the Municipality it is of great pleasure to accept your invitation to work in partnership with The Sioux Lookout District First Nations to explore the concept of an Urban Reserve in Sioux Lookout.

We look forward to meeting with First Nations and participating in future discussions to consider the mutual merits of developing an Urban Reserve. Please advise our CAO, Mr. Merlin Dewing by emailing cao@siouxlookout.ca or by calling 737 2700 ext. 2224 as to when and where you would like to hold the meeting. Our Municipal Council Chambers are available for this meeting if you so desire.

Sincerely,

Kathy Poling
Mayor
